

LOVER OF BABIES IN DEMAND FOR DINNER

Soldier Who Wants to "Be Nurse" Gets Four Thanksgiving Invitations.

HOUSEWIVES ARE EAGER

The soldier who said he would like to go to a home in Washington on Thanksgiving day where there would be a baby he could hold while the mother is getting dinner has made a big hit with the mothers. Four letters in the Soldier Guest Editor's mail today asked that that soldier be assigned to come and play with their baby, and, motherlike, each letter contained a very partial eulogy of what a nice baby rules that home.

This particular soldier could not fairly be expected to eat four dinners of the sort that the Washington housewives are planning to serve, but there are plenty of other soldiers who have little babies in their own homes who will be glad to take a baby into their lap. It is particularly interesting to note the interest the men in uniform have taken in the children of the homes.

Testify the Eagerness.

Scores of letters continue to testify the eagerness of the women of Washington to do their utmost in giving holiday cheer to the lonesome men called to the colors.

Some are not forgetting the French and English soldiers who are in Washington, and a number have asked particularly for allies. One hospital sergeant who has just returned from the Philippines has asked that a Canadian, Englishman and Frenchman be assigned to him to entertain him. He said the wish was not unselfish, and that he wanted to meet the allies and to make them feel at home in the Capital city, and to show them that the Americans are not all money-grabbers.

Here is the way in which the woman folks bid the soldiers, sailors and marines make themselves at home with them:

From Misses Rose Murray, Myrtle Abel, Carrie Abel and Gertrude Pfeiffer, 1223 Vermont avenue northwest, apartment 25:

"There are four of us, all far away from home. We should like very much to have four men to be with us, from anywhere, to share our Thanksgiving dinner."

From W. Harvey Kernan, 526 13th street southeast:

"In connection with your idea of a soldier in every home Thanksgiving day, my wife and I tender an invitation to one Canadian, one English and one French soldier. My idea in asking for foreign soldiers is a selfish one. I'd like very much to meet some of our allies, and, next, I know what it is to be in a foreign land."

From Mrs. G. C. Klein, 2555 Tilden street, Chevy Chase, D. C.:

"It will, indeed, give us great pleasure to entertain two enlisted men Thanksgiving day. I want these young men to feel that they will always be welcome guests at our home in Washington. My daughter and her husband will do all in their power to give Uncle Sam's boys a good time. Dinner at 1 o'clock and tea at 5 o'clock."

From Mr. Howard C. Bissell, 3160 18th street northwest:

"Capt. Bissell and I would be pleased to have two of Uncle Sam's men at our home on Thanksgiving. We have recently come from Winthrop, Maine, if that will interest any of the troops."

Greatest Pleasure of All.

From Mrs. R. T. Van Valkenburg, 3235 17th street northwest:

"I have tried to do my bit—from the Red Cross to the melting pot—but nothing has given me more pleasure as to extend an invitation for Thanksgiving dinner to two of our soldier or sailor boys far away from home and mother."

From Mrs. A. M. Gaver, 3011 16th street northeast:

"I shall be pleased to entertain two of our boys from any branch of the service for Thanksgiving day. Dinner at 12:30, but they can come as early as they wish. Put on a gingham apron and help get dinner, or anything else to make them feel at home."

The following persons also would like to entertain:

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kaldenback, 1118 Park place northeast (one).

Mrs. K. A. Collins, 821 Shepherd street northwest (two).

Mrs. E. J. Feby, 3547 13th street northwest (two).

Mrs. R. Newton Spencer, 109 R street northeast (two).

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Burnham, 659 K street northeast (four).

Miss Bertha E. Chambers, 425 7th street southeast (two).

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Patton, 814 E street southeast (two).

Mr. C. V. Wiman, the Saranac, 1209 North Capitol street (two).

Mrs. N. D. B. Washington, 2131 N street northwest (two).

Mrs. I. P. Morse, 1204 Shepherd street northwest (one).

Chance to Care for Baby.

From Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Amos, Brookland station:

"We would like to entertain three soldier boys for Thanksgiving dinner and supper. We would like the one who wishes to take care of the baby while the mother prepares the dinner."

From Mrs. C. McWilliams, 265 N street northwest, Dartmouth apartment:

"Kindly send two Navy boys for a Thanksgiving dinner, as I have a boy in the Navy."

From Mrs. Franklin Monroe, 2018 1st street northwest:

"It will give me more pleasure than I can express to have six of Uncle Sam's boys at dinner on Thanksgiving day, so kindly extend an invitation to a soldier sailor and marine and their buddies. Dinner will be at 1, and afterward the house will be turned over for music and dancing."

From Mrs. S. C. Handy, 494 Maryland avenue southwest:

"My family and I would be delighted to have three of our soldier boys take dinner with us at 1 o'clock on Thanksgiving. Yours is a splendid plan to make the Thanksgiving pleasant for the boys and we wish to co-operate with you."

From A. M. Dawson, 5 Oak street, Clarendon, Va.:

"I wish to say I think your plan a most commendable one and want to do my little bit by giving two of our boys a good dinner on Thanksgiving. Mrs. C. H. Pickin, who now has a son on the U. S. S. Georgia, would like to have a sailor and a marine. She lives at 3 Oak street, Clarendon."

Also Want Baby-Tender.

From Mrs. A. B. Adams, the Olympia apartment, 14th and Euclid streets:

"My husband and I would like to have the pleasure of entertaining a soldier for Thanksgiving dinner. We particularly want the route leading from the barracks where there is a baby, for our small daughter will be a greater attraction than the simple home dinner."

NEW ROUTES FOR JITNEYS.

Licenses Are Issued by the Public Utilities Commission.

The public utilities commission today authorized the issuance of licenses to operate jitneys over several new routes. Nineteen such permits were granted for the route leading from the District line over the Bladensburg and Benning roads to Jackson place and Pennsylvania avenue.

Two licenses were approved for the route from 15th and H streets northeast to 12th street and New York avenue and from Brookland to 13th street and Pennsylvania avenue.

For routes from the bureau of engraving and printing building to 14th street and Pennsylvania avenue one application was approved, as was also an application to operate across the Anacostia bridge.
